

Gabriel Mohr,ADL

Gabriel Mohr is Principal at Arthur D. Little, a member of the global TIME (Telecommunications, Information Technology, Media and Electronics) practice and head of ADL's TIME media competence center. Gabriel is a thought leader in the media and entertainment space and advises companies along the entire value chain, navigating them through changing business ecosystems to uncover new growth opportunities, to build innovation capabilities and to transform their organizations. Since joining Arthur D. Little in 2013, Gabriel has contributed to as well as led multiple landmark projects across Europe, MENA, Asia and America, building a strong subject matter expertise within the TMT sector and M&A business.