

Karim is the Managing Partner of Arthur D. Little Austria and leads the TIME practice globally. He has 25+ years of experience with ADL in the telecommunication area. Prior to ADL he worked with a leading global telecom supplier.

He is a driver of structural changes @ corporates, advisor of governments and institutions globally with a spirit of challenging the "status-quo" and "breakthrough innovation". Besides he is member of several expert panels and thinktanks related to TIME (standing for 4 industries: Telecommunications, Information Technology, Media and Electronics).

Karim holds an MSc, MBA and PhD (Tunisia - Lycée El Menzah V, France - Lycée JB Say/ESEM, US - UC Berkeley and Austria - TU Wien).